

Ambush FAQs

How much experience does Ambush have?

Ambush has over 15 years experience. We know what it takes to have a successful event. We have performed at weddings, corporate events, fundraisers, New Years Gala's, reunions, street festivals, lobster festivals, retirement parties, birthday parties and private events. We know what songs work best with each crowd, when to take a break, when to keep playing, and when to adjust the volume. We are flexible with special requests. You can rest assure that you are in good hands and that the details of your event will be handled professionally.

When does Ambush setup at your wedding?

We find out when your guests are arriving and set up well in advance. We co-ordinate the details with you prior to the day and have cell phones to make sure you can reach us on the day of your event. We set up quickly with minimum disruption to the organizers and catering staff. It usually takes less than 1 hour to get our equipment in place.

How long does Ambush perform?

Generally we perform from 9pm to 1am. We perform three one hours sets with two half hour breaks but are very flexible to adjust set times to accommodate your needs.

What happens when Ambush is on break?

We always bring a CD player and/or IPOD so that the music can continue. We can play whatever music you like during the break, although we have a great selection that keeps the dance floor packed! The CD player or IPOD can also provide cocktail or dinner music which we also provide if you choose.

How far will Ambush travel?

The band is based in Kingston Ontario, however we have done many events across Canada. Circumstances willing Ambush can perform anywhere.

Can we hear Ambush play?

Visit our tour page at: www.getambushed.com for a full listing of show dates. You will also find a few audio samples of our music on this website.

What equipment does Ambush provide?

We provide everything needed to perform for your event. Ambush assists in any extra equipment, lighting ideas or extra sound that might be necessary depending on the venue. We are happy to help with suggestions for ways to save on cost, volume level, enjoyment and overall ambiance of the whole evening.

Does Ambush require a stage?

The band does not need a lot of space. We can play at ground level with the guests (depending on the size of an event) as it tends to be more intimate and gives people an opportunity to connect with the band to make requests. If the venue has a permanent stage we will gladly use it.

Does Ambush perform outdoors?

Yes! Performing outdoors is fun and adds a certain excitement to your event. As long as there is sufficient coverage available due to inclement weather.

Can we use a DJ in addition to Ambush?

Absolutely! Ambush prides itself on making your event the most memorable. If there is a style of music that the band is not well versed in we have no problem with a DJ service to help supplement your wishes. We don't take many breaks but we are flexible to allow you the total music experience for your event.

Can our friend perform with Ambush?

Yes, your friend is welcome to perform with the band.

How is Ambush paid?

Once the date is confirmed, we ask for a 50% deposit. The balance is due at the end of your event.

What happens if a band member is sick?

This is very rare. However, there have been many musicians who have played with us over the years that a substitute is always ready.
